Study highlights key facts on migrant integration in Ukraine

How do migrants in Ukraine live, where do they work, do they have equal access to healthcare and education and other public services on par with Ukrainian citizens, do they feel safe, and what are the needs for integration? The answers to these questions are essential to developing an effective migrant integration policy. In order to draft recommendations for Ukrainian policy makers, the International Organization for Migration (IOM), as part of the EU-funded MIGRECO project (Strengthening Migration Management and Cooperation on Readmission in Eastern Europe), has conducted a comprehensive study on integration, hate crimes and discrimination against different categories of migrants.
